

CHEF'S TABLE

BY CHEF STEPHAN

EVENT PROPOSAL

Chef's Table by Chef Stephan Zoisl aims to create a space that is all about great produce and showcasing the dedication of producers globally - be it a farmer who is driven to work on incredible product to make a Chef's life easier, a wine maker who had the passion to look after the harvest all year round or Whisky master who had the dedication to let his product evolve over several years till it is final bottles.

Guests will be served a customized menu accordingly to the season's available produce, treated with the most creative dishes serve by Chef Stephan Zoisl himself. Guests can fully interact with the kitchen always as we try to recreate the feel of a home kitchen.

THE CHEF

Executive Chef Stephan Zoisl, born December 1981, grew up in the region of Innsbruck, Austria. He grew up in a family business and has had experience working in restaurants for over 20 years. Relishing in the luxury of having a professional chef as his father, Stephan's dream of picking up the toque or chef's hat came as no surprise. As a young boy he loved being in the kitchen.

Chef's professional career brought him to a 3 year apprenticeship at the 5 Star Hotel Europa in Innsbruck, followed by stints in Vienna, Do&Co Haas Haus with the option to work in their global catering company from time to time to witness the background operations of big sports events like the Formula 1. Further to this, he moved to St. Moritz, Switzerland (Mathis Food Affairs), back to Vienna (Steirereck, 2 Michelin Star), Vila Joya (Portugal, 2 Michelin Stars).

In 2006 he took on his first Sous Chef position at the age of 25 years.

What followed was a move to Singapore in the year 2007, where he took over as the head chef of the now defunct Novus Restaurant at the National Museum.

Followed by short stints (stagier) at the Fat Duck in Bray, UK (3 Michelin Star), as well Alinea, in Chicago (3 Michelin Stars), and his endless desire to travel - he decided to open Chef's Table by Chef Stephan on 1st January 2016 in Tras Street.
